After suffering for ten years from catarrh, having lost my sense of smell and experiencing an oppressive him derance to mental activity and at times great difficulty in public speaking, and after applying to various physicians and using a variety of remedies, but in no case with more than temporary results, I was fortanate enough in March last to commence the use of Dr. Jaz. P. Gampbell's preparationa. His remedies surprised and gratised me by the rapidly and eilindency of their action. In a short time every symptom of this distressing complaint of long standing disappeared and a permanent cure has been effected.

From careful inquiry in my late parish I also learn that entire cures of other obstinate and extreme cases have been effected by the same means, as well in cases of dearness as with persons affiliced with catarrh. A year ago my wife suffered intensely for ten days from a severe and excruciatingly painful attack of neuraligia and sciatica. No treatment afforded a particle of relief, and she was completely worn out with pain and suffering. In despair we at last procured a small bottle of Dr. Jas. P. West Thirtiett street.

New York, Feb. II, 1874,
For seven years I suffered acutely from chronic catarrh, which gradually extended to my throat and lungs, causing incessant hawking and profuse bloody expectoration, together with "lumps" of viscid and offensive mucus. Ultimately the hearing of my right ear became seriously affected, accompanied by a paintul and distressing "ringing noise." I had tried almost every known remedy without a particle of benefit, and I felt that unless relief came speedily I must die, for my general health was rapidly giving way. In this condition I commenced the use of Dr. Jas. P. Campbell's preparations, and began in a short time to rapidly improve. I persevered latthfully for six months, at the end of which time I was "radically cured," not a vestige of Catarrh remaining, and my hearing and volce as perfect as those of any other man, and since that time digit; verter to be alth, which happy conjoyment at the condition of the condition of the condition of the condition. This voluntary and unsolicited statement I am at all times ready to personally verify.

Dr. Jas. P. CAMPERLL-Your "Radical Cure for Catarrh" operated like "a charm" in my case, wholly removing every symptom by the use only of the two bottles. Yours, gratefully.

PEBRUARY 13, 1874. 176 Willoughby avenue, Brooklyn.

FLUSHING, IS. A WINDORDLY EVENING, IS. I., August 8, 1872.

Dr. Campbell. — Dean Sis.—The "Specific for Intemperance" you prescribed for a member of my family when you resided at Great Neck, I am thankful to say, proved thoroughly effectual in overcoming the craving for spirituous liquors, and both my family and myself will always feel deeply grateful to you for being the means of removing a heavy affliction from our hearts and minds. Very sincerely yours,

NEW YORK, Feb. 18, 1874.

My wife for a considerable length of time suffered

My wife for a considerable length of time suffered severely from an aggravated form of bladder and kidney disease, which ordinary remedies and treatment failed to remove or even mitigate. A friend suggested that we try the preparations of Dr. Jas. P. Campbell, of which he spoke very highly. From the use of one bottle my wife received marked and decided benefit. We used, in all, but five bottles, when the difficulty was wholly and completely removed, and she has not since been troubled. To these facts I cheerfully certify. DAVID PARKER, 1,491 Broadway, near Forty-firth street.

DR. JAS. P. CAMPBELL:—DEAR SIR—I give you full permission to make use of my name, as among the large number "radically cured" of chronic catarrh by the use of your efficient remedies. Severe colds cause no return of unpleasant symptoms. Heter doubters to my father or myself. Very sincerely yours.

Miss IMOGENE MOSCROFT, Northbridge, Mass.

DR. CAMPRELL:—DEAR SIR—By the use of your preparations my daughter Katie has entirely regained her hearing, of which for seven years she had been deprived. We owe you a debt of gratitude, and feel you were an instrument in God's hands to restore her to health, and it has indeed been a great blessing. She had, in addition to her deafness, a constant discharge from one ear, which has also entirely distippeared. She now hears fully as well as any one, and has done so for the past four years, so we feel the cure is permanent. The Lord grant you success. Gratefully yours.

TAUNTON, Mass., Jan. 2, 1874.
